MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant for Public Affairs
FROM: Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Publications Review Board

I've just noted that you are Chairman of the Publications Review Board. I'd like to move out as rapidly as we can with declassifying and publishing as many things as possible. I would particularly like to get some public impact by issuing a spate of such publications in the next few months.

Dear Mike:

Thank you for your kind remarks of March 14 regarding my new assignment and your favorable impressions of CIA analysis.

I appreciate your informing me about the Soviet Naval Developments Seminar you will be holding in Washington in June. [Redacted] from our Office of Strategic Research plan to attend. I am sure they and the organization will benefit as much from these sessions as we have from your past seminars.

STAT

Unfortunately, my schedule probably will not enable me to sit in on any of the discussions. In any case, I wish you luck and look forward to hearing about the results.

Yours,

15/

Dear Stan:

It was good to get your 'change of address' card, and we were of course delighted to hear that you were taking over as Director. From my time in the business, I acquired a great respect for the high quality of CIA analysis and we considered it the best of the U.S. agencies.

You may be interested to see the enclosed flyer about an "Update on Soviet Naval Developments", which we will probably be holding in Washington in June. U.S. Government analysts (including C.I.A.) have participated in past seminars at [redacted] and I am expecting increased involvement with a Washington venue. I hope you will give it your blessing, and of course your own presence would be very welcome at any of the sessions. I will send you an agenda when it jells.

STAT

Good luck in your new appointment. A fascinating and challenging job.

Sincerely,

Dear Felix,

Many thanks for your thoughts on relations with the Agency and academe. The clippings were interesting and I've shared them with some of my colleagues.

Felix, I would not at all consider you presumptuous for keeping me up to date on what people at Kansas think about CIA and our relations with the academic community, or any other subject for that matter. By all means write whenever you are inclined to pass along your observations.

My best to you.

Yours,

/s/ Stansfield Turner
